Customer Payment Agreement

I, Alan Shover (Printed Name) am entering into a Computer Maintenance Agreement with (<http://iskbusinessstechnology.com/privacy-policy.php>) a one-time payment of $600

I understand that(<http://iskbusinessstechnology.com/privacy-policy.php>) is an Individual Tech Support Company, provides expert's tech-support for third party products.

I also understand that (<http://iskbusinessstechnology.com/privacy-policy.php>) will not bill my account for services rendered until I am satisfied with the service and approve the transaction with a member of ISK BUSINESS TECHNOLOGY LLC Department.

Furthermore, I agree, that if at any time I have any issue regarding the payment, I will contact ISK BUSINESS TECHNOLOGY LLC Billing Department support@iskbusinessstechnology.com to resolve the problem prior to contacting my bank to file a dispute, freeze my account, stop the payment, etc.

I understand that (<http://iskbusinessstechnology.com/privacy-policy.php>) takes customer satisfaction very seriously, and that they offer a simple dispute process to recover my funds if for any reason I am unsatisfied with the services provider.

Tech Support Safety Tips from iskbusinessstechnology.com

1. Always watch the screen as your computer is being repaired. If your screen become non-visible, demand to be able to see what is occurring, or terminate the session.

2. Beware of any company claiming to be Apple. Apple is not in the business of monitoring people computers, and will never contact you. Especially to alert you to a virus infection that may be present. If a company tells you they are Apple or calling in behalf of Apple, please notify support@iskbusinessstechnology.com and on emergency requirement call on the toll free number 1800 861 6805 (USA) within business hours PST immediately before continuing.

3. Ask for details of the services performed with an itemized report upon completion.

Ask for detailed lists of any virii - (virus) or malware found and removed.

Beware of technical support companies contacting you starting you have any issues on your computer. Customer should always initiate a call for service.
